World Book Day

Thursday 4th March 2021

Dear Parents/Carers,

Next Thursday 4th March is World Book Day! We love World Book Day and we love books so we didn't want to miss this special occasion, despite things being a bit different than usual.

So next Thursday, it would be great if your child/ren could all dress up as a favourite book character, whether you are at home or at school. There will be book related activities to take part in that day. As we are currently reapplying for our Green Flag Award and the UK is hosting the UN Climate Change Conference this year, we have decided to have a eco themed World Book Day focussing on thoughts for a better world through reading and writing. Home learning English for this day will therefore be based around this.

There is absolutely no expectation for you to spend any money on outfits for this – lots of favourite book characters wear 'normal clothes' so use what you have at home and maybe your child could make any accessories! Here are some useful links for ideas

We are hoping for all children to have Meets with their teachers that day – it would be lovely if your child could have a favourite book with them and be able to share with their friends why they like this book.

Please share any photos of your child dressed in their World Book outfits on Twitter or send them to your child's teacher – we look forward to seeing them.

We look forward to sharing World Book Day with you all.

Thank you for your support

Mrs Pollitt
